

INTRANSIT AND THE
2018-2019 ROMANCE
STUDIES DIALOGUE SERIES

DON QUIXOTE'S ARAB CHRONICLER AND THE BORDERS OF HISTORY

Mary Gaylord, Sosland Family
Professor at Harvard University

The lecture will examine the logic behind Cervantes' designation of Cide Hamete Benengeli as author of the "original" version of Don Quixote's history, placing that seemingly festive gesture in the context of Habsburg historiography and exploring its implications for the parodic and satiric reach of his masterpiece.

Gustave Doré, Cide Hamete Benengeli,
the Arabian Historian

<https://www.intransitduke.org/>

November 14th at 5:30 p.m.
Rubenstein Library Carpenter Conference Room 249

With questions, contact Lillian Wright, lillian.wright@duke.edu, 919-660-3102